

What We Are Looking For

- We want someone who will embrace the firm's values and procedures – someone who is on board with what we do and how we do it
- Professionalism is key, but our longstanding client base means you need to be friendly and approachable as well
- All our staff are committed to excellence in their work
- Strong communication skills are required – daily client interaction means you need to be able to interpret and explain legal documents and principles in clear, understandable language
- Someone with an eye for detail, who can deal with work accurately and in an organised manner
- We aim to fully understand our clients' needs so you should be able to see situations from a client's perspective and advise accordingly
- We want someone who will be with us for the long-term. All our Partners trained at the firm, so you should be committed to the firm and want to progress within it
